

Notice from the administrator of the Swissair Group to creditors and the media

Second part of sale of inflight materials to end on 21 December 2002 – Third part to follow in mid-February 2003

Küsnacht-Zurich, 13 December 2002. The sale of Swissair inflight materials by the Kurt Hoss firm of liquidators (website: www.hossliquidator.ch) has so far been extraordinarily successful. To date, revenues stand at around CHF 3.5 million and it is estimated that approximately 100,000 people have visited the sale venue.

The last liquidation day for inflight materials is provisionally 21 December 2002. The sale will begin again in mid-February 2003, with the exact date being announced in due course. Alongside the remaining inflight materials, the third part of the sale will feature mainly office fittings and IT equipment, specifically desks, corner desk combinations, conference tables, meeting room chairs, lounge furnishings, storage units, shelving, filing cabinets, office swivel chairs and visitors' chairs from a variety of manufacturers. The sale will last approximately one month.
