Küsnacht-Zurich, 21 February 2003. The third part of the Swissair liquidation sale is set to begin on 12 March 2003. Liquidation will last several weeks. The large volumes of goods on sale means that most items will still be available beyond the first few days of the sale. In addition to the remaining inflight materials such as travel alarm clocks, watches, Hutschenreuther porcelain, sleeping bags, silver and chrome-plated cutlery, this part of the sale will concentrate on office furniture (both standard and executive models) and a small volume of IT materials. The following office furniture is being offered for sale: Desks both with and without storage units, meeting tables, conference tables, printer tables, cupboards in a range of models, shelving, office swivel chairs, visitors' chairs, conference chairs (some of which have leather upholstery), lounge furniture and pictures.

The Kurt Hoss firm of liquidators continues to be responsible for the sale, and further information will be made available on the company's website (www.hossliquidator.ch). Specifically, this website is where the sale venue and opening hours will be published from Friday, 7 March 2003. Interested parties can also use the website to register for more details by e-mail as soon as they become available.
